

One Camera Set-up

- This set-up is compatible with Quintic Sports, Coaching & Biomechanics software
- This set-up can be operated on a laptop or desktop
- Videos are captured directly via the Quintic software and ready for immediate analysis
- Offers a portable solution, whether analysis is being completed indoors or outdoors

* Not to scale

Two Camera Set-up

- This set-up is compatible with Quintic Coaching or Biomechanics software
- This set-up can be operated on a laptop or desktop
- Videos are captured directly via the Quintic software and automatically synchronised, ready for immediate analysis
- Offers a portable solution, whether analysis is being completed indoors or outdoors

* Not to scale

Three/Four/Five/Six Camera Set-up

- This set-up is only compatible with Quintic Coaching v33 or Quintic Biomechanics v33 software
- This set-up is recommended to can be operated from a desktop PC (3, 4, 5 or 6 Cameras)
- Videos are captured directly via the Quintic software and automatically synchronised, ready for immediate analysis
- 3, 4, 5 or 6 camera system is more for a fixed solution, offering a full in-depth analysis

* Not to scale

- 5 Metre USB3 cables are able to be plugged directly into the laptop or desktop using a single port per camera
- USB3 Extension cables are available in the following lengths: 10, 20, 30 & 50 Metres (2 USB3 ports required per extension cable depending on the type of extension cable used).

To find out more or to arrange a free, no obligation, online demonstration simply email: info@quintic.com or call: +44 (0)1675 620 999.